

BrainOS Release 2.15.3

Highlights

This document summarizes the key product enhancements and updates available in the Brain Corporation BrainOS 2.15.3 navigation software release.

New software releases download automatically to your machine(s), much like they would for your mobile device. After it downloads the software update completely, your machine will be able to take advantage of the updates listed in this document on the next machine power cycle.

While this document highlights the key changes in BrainOS release 2.15.3, the release contains additional back-end enhancements. For a more in-depth explanation of the product enhancements that you will now be able to take advantage of, or if you simply have questions about this release, we encourage you to contact your authorized account representative.

©2020 Brain Corporation. All rights reserved.

BrainOS Release 2.15.3

This document lists the new features, improvements, bug fixes, and known issues for the Brain Corporation BrainOS version 2.15.3 software release. After it downloads to your machine, this version will automatically be available after the next power cycle.

Improvements

Reclassified the following assist codes as the more specific Steering Error instead of Path is Blocked:

- 100
- 101
- 102
- 218
- 40002
- 40006

Also added the following as a startup error:

- 4

Bug Fixes:

The screen now displays intermediate Route Complete status messages when running consecutive routes.